Presentation of examples of practice in the host country

THE CHALLENGES OF THE RECENT PAST

- The legal environment

- Social expectations

- The development of a knowledge based perspective

- The promotion of enterprise

- Integration

- Regional expectations

- The BOLOGNA-process

THE BOLOGNA PROCESS

The main goals
of the Bologna Declaration:

- The issuing of degrees and diplomas of comparative value
- Two-cycle higher education training schemes
- The development of a credit system promoting mobility
- Quality culture

THE STRUCTURE OF THE TRAINING PROGRAMS

Undivided training programs

6 semesters
180 credits
Doctoral PROGRAM
(PhD)

3-4 semesters
90-120 credits
MA TRAINING
(Master)

6-8 semesters
180-240 credits
Undergraduate BA programs
(Bachelor)

Labour market

Special post-secondary programs

MODERN INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY (ICT)

ELECTRONIC LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

The definition of the concept of electronic learning environments:

1. distributed resources
2. not alternative to traditional LE
3. electronic ICT
4. virtual dimension
5. digital dimension
6. communication channels