

New UNESCO Guide for ensuring equity and inclusion in education

Why?

Why do we need to focus on equity

& inclusion

?

263 million children, youth and adolescents, aged between 6 and 17 years, are not in school today.

Even when in school, children and young people are not necessarily learning and those from vulnerable groups are more likely to suffer from discrimination and to be targeted by school violence.

Who?

Policy Makers Senior Staff School Staff Families Communities

Where?

National district and local level

Formal, non-formal and informal settings

How?

1

Reviewing current policies and practices

2

Deciding on actions to be taken

3

Monitoring progress

Read the guide:

<http://on.unesco.org/2thWCHM>

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

Education
Sector

Education
2030

